

Sample organizational structures

Organizational structures differ significantly from school to school. These sample organizational charts demonstrate the complex web of relationships between each individual school and its accrediting agency, provincial government, and other stakeholders.

